Introduction

“Sharing ideas with other parents gives you confidence”

The groups support you with some of the challenges of being a parent. Parents tell us they learn a great deal from each other and enjoy the support that a group provides. We offer a selection of free courses, whatever the age or needs of your child.

For more information about any of the courses please contact your local Parent and Adult Education Lead, contact details can be found on the Family Information website:

Living with Parents: 13 – 17 Years

Living with Parents is a one day workshop where parents/carers attend with their teenagers and the focus is on improving communication to help reduce conflict in the home.

Speakeasy

Speakeasy gets parents and carers together to talk about the best ways to chat with their children, whatever their age, about growing up, body changes, sex and relationships.

We aim to get parents and carers to feel more confident and relaxed about subjects that can be tricky and awkward to discuss. It's amazing how much there is to learn and reassuring to know that most of us feel nervous and unprepared for the questions children ask us!

Speakeasy will help you feel more confident speaking with your children about sex, relationships and growing up, using words they understand and you are comfortable using. Speakeasy usually runs for 8 weekly 2 hour sessions.

We offer a selection of free courses, whatever the age or needs of your child.

Ante-natal/Great Expectations

This fantastic 6 week course at your local Children's Centre provides parents-to-be with all the information and skills they need to feel confident about making the right choices for their new baby. Delivered by Midwives, Health Visitors and Children Centre staff, the topics include:

- Having a healthy baby
- Preparation for parenthood, birth and beyond
- Communicating with your bump and baby
- Changes in relationships
- Getting your baby off to the best possible start
- How babies grow and develop

There will also be plenty of opportunities to ask questions and reduce any anxieties about becoming a parent, and it's all free!

"Here's Looking at You"

Baby

'Here's Looking at You Baby' is a six week course for parents and babies aged 0-6 months. The group was developed from long term research into infant behaviour. It highlights the importance of parents understanding what their babies are trying to communicate before they can use words to ask for what they want.

Little One

'Here's Looking at You Little One' is a six week course for parents and their young children aged between 9 months and three years. The course provides an opportunity to offer theoretical and practical information to support the development of their child and enhance attachment. It helps build on parents instincts and provides greater understanding of the emotional, physical and communicative abilities of their young child.
